“These are Complex times. We are used to adapting. And we are resilient. Our venue is versatile and has many uses. There are three other spaces in the building for hire: a gallery, a rehearsal room and a break out space, as well as seventeen resident artist studios. It is a community where art lives. # A UNIQUE CREATIVE SPACE IN THE HEART OF THE CITY ENERGY

The Complex is a dynamic arts centre that presents the work of both emerging and established artists, while offering a welcoming and inclusive space. Its unique warehouse aesthetic provides a blank canvas for arts of all kinds for both in house and visiting artists. It is also home to 17 artist studios and several community engagement initiatives, such as The Browbeating Project, The Complex Women's Drama Group, High Hopes Choir and Complex Youth Theatre. Located in the heart of north west Dublin, The Complex aims to enrich our community with art of meaningful social value.
